Index

Aboriginal people see Indigenous peoples

Administration of justice judges, propriety of comments concerning, 6, 337-9

Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT)
establishment of, 172

Administrative law see also Judicial review of administrative action; Ombudsman conflicting views on, Australian and English courts, 14-15
French system, of administrative courts, 172 Kerr Committee, establishment of, 169-77 reasons for decision, introduction of obligation of decision-maker to provide, 171 reforms, 167-79
reality of, 177-9
separation of powers, influence of doctrine on administrative law principles, 189-90

Administrative Review Tribunal (ART)
establishment of, 172

Administrative tribunals judicial independence and, 332 mistakes, power to correct, 192

Advocacy see Counsel

Annual Oration in Judicial Administration (Fifth), delivered by Sir Anthony in 1993 to the Australian Institute of Judicial Administration, 46-58

Appeals
High Court, 364-5
appellant’s case, structure of, 383-4 composition, 366
hearing of, 379-82
interveners, 387 see also Interveners opening, 384-6
oral argument, 365
Privy Council, to, 11-12, 30, 364 reply, 386-7
respondent’s case, 386, time constraints, 365
written submissions in, 93, 365, 382-3, 391 intermediate courts of, 370-1 judges, appellate, 52-3 judicial review and, distinction, 175 jurisdiction, appellate, in Australia, 364-71 refusal of special leave to appeal, precedential value of, 30-2 special leave procedure, 368-70, 387-91
civil, 388-90
criminal, 390-1

Appointment, judicial, 49-50, 373, 411

Attorneys-General
criticism, defence of courts and judges from, 4, 48, 98-9, 109, 337-8

Australia Acts 1986
effect, 11, 160-1
enactment, 145

Australian Institute of Judicial Administration, Guide to Judicial Conduct, 6-7

Barwick, Sir Garfield, 363, 394 constraints on commenting after retirement, absence, 8 criticism of free speech cases, 398, 407 High Court building, Canberra, role in planning, 399 outstanding advocate, 378, 385

Bill of Rights see also Rights adopting, effect of, 122-3 advantages of, 215-16
Australia, for, 207-18, 255
Australian Constitution, absence in 122-3, 146-7, 255 law, impact on, 216-18
objections to, 90, 208-15, 255 parliamentary sovereignty, and theory of, 113-14, 219 see also Parliament privacy, and right to, 78 proposal to enact, 122-3, 142

429
Bill of Rights (cont)
Sir Anthony Mason, attitude to adoption of, 3, 26, 89-90, 147, 207, 255, 406 statutory, adoption in Australia and elsewhere, 142, 147, 218, 234-5, 255, values and, 89-90
Bray, Dr outstanding judges, influence of, 43
Brennan, William Jr
Bill of Rights, judicial interpretation of, 133-4, 155, 212, 218, 344
Canada administrative law, developments in, 199-204
Cardozo, Benjamin judicial process, views on nature of, 39-40
Common law British precedents, impact on Australian judge made law, 11-13 decisions of other countries, relevance, 396 emerging Australian, 13-7 treaties, development through unincorporated, 259 United States and British, comparison, 17
Commonwealth see also Constitution and Federalism balance of powers, federal-State, 148-55 Commonwealth power implied limitations on, 149 weaker limitation, emergence of, 150 Engineers Case, rejection of implied limitations by, 149-50 corporations power, 128, 154 external affairs power, and federal-State balance of powers, 150-1, 257-8 States, financial dependence on, 124-5, 151-3 Community courts and, 58 judge as voice of, 99-100 jury as voice of, 99 moral values, enduring, and, 102-3 standards interpretation of statutes and, 103 judges and, 101-2 values as community standards, 83-4 perceived by courts, 403
Compensation, equitable relationship between common law damages and, 314-16
Complaints judges, against, investigation of, 371-2
Conciliation and arbitration power federal-State balance of powers, and, 154-5 Confidence administration of justice, in, as factor in judicial decision-making, 103-4, 157 political process, erosion in public confidence, 161-2 public, in courts, 95-6 protecting, 96-103
Consistency precedent, and doctrine of, 27-9 sentencing, in, and guideline judgments, 106
Constitution see also Bill of Rights; Commonwealth; Federalism; Rights; Separation of powers; States acceptance of, by Australian people, 144 acquisition of property, on just terms, 146 amendment of, process difficult to satisfy, 134, 161 Australian repatriation of, 160-1 retrospect and prospect, in, 144-62 United States and, comparison between, 112-13 charter of citizens' rights, absence of, 122-3, 146-7 see also Bill of Rights comparison, between Australian and United States, 112-13 co-operative federalism and, 155-6 court, constitutional, role in federation, 110-43 courts, role in relation to, 225-6 Deakin, perception of, 237-8 directly chosen by the people, comparison between Australian and United States language, 118 dissatisfaction with Australian, 110 equal rights, prohibitions on discrimination against interstate residents, reinterpretation of, 121, 142, 146 comparison between Australian and United States provisions, 121 implied from, 231, 234
INDEX

equality of electoral divisions
Australian Parliament, directly chosen by the people, comparison between Australian and United States language, 118

State Parliaments, 142 excise power, judicial interpretation of, 125, 410 executive power, to enter into treaties, 153, 257, 258 federal legislative powers see individual powers and also Federalism federal-State balance of powers, 128-33, 148-55, 257-8, 409-10 Commonwealth power
implied limitations on, 128-33, 143, 149
weaker limitation, emergence of, 150
Engineers Case, rejection of implied limitations by, 129-30, 149-50, 158, 409 freedom of interstate trade and commerce, 72, 127, 137, 143, 153, 229, 353 freedom and establishment of religion, comparison between Australian and United States provisions, 119-20, 146 globalisation, and Australian Constitution, 294-5

Indigenous peoples, failure to make provision for, 148 interpretation, principles of constitutional, 133-40, 158-60 analytical approach, former, 139-40
dynamic rule of constitutional interpretation, 135-6 extrinsic materials, 137-8
formal rules of statutory construction, 136-7 judicial review, and, 115-16 meaning of terms, in 1900, 138-9 interpretive techniques, comparison between Australian and United States, 113-23 interstate trade and commerce, federal power over, 126-8, 143 judicial power and, 156-8 judicial review

legitimacy, implied basis, 115-16 constitutional foundations of, administrative action of, 180-2 political questions and generally, justiciability of, 115-16, 142 members of Parliament, qualifications of, 151, 161, 162 monarchy, entrenchment of, 147-8 nature of, 145-8
non-establishment of religion, comparison between Australian and United States provisions, 119-20 parliamentary supremacy, and doctrine of, 113-14, 121 and see Parliament precedent, and interpretation of, 36 prohibitions, implied, in Australian and United States constitutions, 128-33 reform, need for, 111, 161 review of Australian see Constitutional Commission rights
Australian and American interpretation of constitutional, differences between, 118-23 source of, as, 89
trial by jury, comparison between Australian and United States provisions, 118-19, 146 values, as source of, 89
Westminster model, adoption of, 147

Constitutional Commission and Advisory Committees Australian Constitution, review of, 26, 111, 142, 162, 366-7

Constructive trust, remedial, 320-4

Contempt of court
comment on pending case, punishment as, 97

Continuity
precedent, and doctrine of, 27-9

Contract law, 296-308
business transactions, protecting security of, 303-4 classical theory, of contract, 297-9
conflicting views on, Australian and English courts, 15 duty of good faith owed by parties to contract, 306-7 extrinsic materials, exclusion, 300-2 parties subsequent conduct, 300, 301 prior negotiations, 300-1 history, 296-7
implication of terms into contracts, 305 interpretation of contracts, liberal or strict, 304-5 just outcomes, generating, tension between protection of security of business transactions and, 303-4 Contract law (cont)
mistake, 302-3
objective theory of contract, rise of, 299-303 privity, 53, 73, 83
security of business transactions, tension with generating just outcomes, 303-4 separation of law and equity, effect, 304 Sir Anthony, other major writing, 308 statute law, impact of, 306

Conventions
fundamental rights, recognition by courts where declared by, 232-4 ministerial responsibility, of, 249 provisions in international, as source of common law principle, 89 republic, Convention model for, 163-6 separation of powers, and accessions to international, 258-63
transformation and incorporation theories, and unincorporated, 263-4 war, Australia and international conventions on, 265

Corporations power see also Federalism
federal-State balance of powers, and, 154 restrictions on interstate trade and commerce power overcome by, 128

Cost
prohibitive, of litigation, 333

Counsel
appellate advocacy, 376-91 audience, right of before courts, 335-6 competence, improvement in professional, 378-9
oral argument, 365
written submissions, 93, 365, 382-3, 391

Courts see also Judges, Independence administration of, 332-4 appeal, intermediate courts of, 370-1 appropriations, one line, 334 audience, right of, before, 335-6 changes to law, kinds of best left to legislatures and law reform agencies, 76-7 community, and, 58
comparative jurisprudence of transnational tribunals, use by, 268 confidence, public, in, 95-6 protecting, 96-103
constitution, role in relation to, 225-6 constitutional, role in federation, 110-43 criticism, vulnerability to, 98-9 delays, 374-5
fees, as source of revenue, 335
funding of, 332-4
hierarchy of, and doctrine of precedent, 30 High Court see High Court law reform agencies, not, 67 legislatures, not, 56-7 litigation, costs of 333, 344 public opinion, and, 94-109 publicity about proceedings, 253 resources, disputes about, 7 tribunals, and, 50
values
resources to identify and assess, 91-2 perception by courts, 403

Criminal law and procedure appeals, special leave applications, 390-1 courts, power to stay prosecutions, 339-40 judges, propriety of public comments concerning sentencing, 7
objective test of intent, conflicting views
on, Australian and English courts, 14, 71-2

Criticim
courts, vulnerability to, 98-9 High Court decisions, of, 398, 403-4 judges, of, 4, 47-9, 98-9, 109, 337-8

Cussen, Sir Leo
outstanding judges, influence of, 43

Damages
common law, relationship between equitable compensation and, 314-16

Dawson, Sir Daryl
view of extra-judicial speeches and writing, propriety of, 7

Deakin, Alfred
Aboriginal peoples, attitude to, 240 reconciliation, 244
achievement of, 243
Australian nationhood, unique contribution to, 236-7
Australian Constitution, perception of, 237-8
education, approval of expenditure on, 244-5
internationalism, 244 issues confronted by, 247-8 lecture delivered by Sir Anthony in 2001, Melbourne, as part of Alfred Deakin Lecture Series, 236-48
monarchy-republic issue, likely view on, 246 nationalism, sense of, 238-9 science, approval of expenditure on, 244-5 strategy, grand, of, 241-2 later unwinding of, 242 tariff protection, attitude to, 240-1 vacuum left by attainment of nationhood, 243-4
"White Australia", position in relation to, 239-40

Declaration
remedy, availability of, 168

Delays, court, 333, 374-5

Democracy see also Politics; Executive abuse of executive power to detain individuals, 253-4 academic freedom, 251
law and, 249-55
legislation, enactment without parliamentary scrutiny, 259-60 majoritarian, 220
ministerial responsibility, decline of, 249 parliamentary supremacy, movement away from exclusive emphasis on, 26 rights, threat posed to, by, 252-4 economic reforms, 252
terrorism, 252-4
sovereignty, decline of, and problems for democratic government, 276-95

Dismissal
head of state, of, 163-6
Whitlam government, of, 250

Dixon, Sir Owen
judicial development of Australian law, mark on, 1 judicial function, view of, 18 legalism, strict and complete, of, 3, 17 expression of doctrine, 114 judicial method, concept of legalism and, 61-2 outstanding judges, influence of, 43
transformation theory, favoured view of, 264

Economy
civil rights, in era of economic reform, 252-4 knowledge, rise of, 280 rationalism, rise of economic, and national sovereignty, 277 realities, economic, of today, 246 restraints, economic, 246-7

Education, 244-5
Deakin, approval of expenditure on, 244-5 judicial, and developing role of the judge, 57 legal research for, 351
United States and Australia, in, 347-8

Felicott, Mr RJ QC
Kerr Committee, membership of, 169

Environment, 245
degradation of, 245
international environmental law, influence on Australian municipal law, 269-73 pollution, threat from, 279

Equity see also Contract law compensation, equitable, relationship between common law damages and, 314-16 constructive trust, remedial, 320-4
estoppel, 324-7
fiduciary relationships, 316-19
Judicature Act, effect, 311-14 place of, in contemporary common law world, 309-30 restitution, 327-9
Sir Anthony, other major writing, 308, 330
unconscionable bargains conflicting views, Australian and English courts, 15 mistake in contract, 302-3 relief against, 319-20

Errors of law
jurisdictional and non-jurisdictional, distinction between, 14-15, 190-2

Estoppel, 324-7

European Community, 284

Excise power judicial interpretation of, 125, 410

Executive
abuse of power to detain individuals, 283-4 cabinet decisions, and judicial review, 341 determination by, of rights of audience in courts, 335-6 parliament, controlling, 250 treaties, power to enter into, 153, 257, 258 and see Treaties External affairs power and see also Federalism federal-State balance of powers, and, 126, 130, 150-1, 257-8, 409 role of Parliament and States, 291-3 Fact
judicial review in relation to questions of, 193-5 questions of law, distinction from questions of, 193-5 Federalism see also Commonwealth; Constitution; States
balance of powers, federal-State, 148-55, 257-8, 409-10 Commonwealth power
implied limitations on, 128-33, 143, 149
weaker limitation, emergence of, 150
Engineers Case, rejection of implied limitations by, 129-30, 143, 149-50, 158, 409 co-operative, 155-6
federal legislative power over conciliation and arbitration, 154 corporations, 128, 154
external affairs
generally, 126
role of States, 291-3
treaty obligations, implementation of, 130, 257-8, 409 interstate trade and commerce, 126-8, 142-3 financial dependence, of States on Commonwealth, 124-5, 151-3 freedom of interstate trade and commerce, 72, 127, 153, 229, 353 judicial interpretation of, 123-33
Fees
court, as source of revenue, 335 Fiduciary relationships, 316-19
Formalism
legal see Legalism
Four Corners Interview, by Liz Jackson of Sir Anthony for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation program in 1995, 398-413 Freedom of expression internet, 288-9, 295
political communication, implied from representative government, 74-5, 93, 146, 223-4, 274, 406-9
Fullagar, Sir Wilfred Memorial Lecture, delivered by Sir Anthony at Monash University in 1987, 11-26
Gibbs, Sir Harry, 361 common law, development of, 21 retirement, nature of activities after, 8, 404 Globalisation, 276-80
burdens of, 246
Constitution, Australian, and, 294-5 internationalism, and Deakin’s grand strategy, 244 problems arising from, 293-4 Government
decline of sovereignty, and problems for democratic, 276-95 executive, dialogue between judiciary and, 108 media scrutiny of, 253 negligence, liability in, 342-3 representative, essence of, 250 Griffith, Chief Justice
outstanding judges, influence of, 43
Guantanamo Bay
treatment of suspects held in, 254 Hearing
closed, who decides when necessary, 253-4 right to fair and public, 253
Hickman principle, 187-8
Higgins, Justice
outstanding judges, influence of, 43
High Court
advisory opinions, suggested as additional jurisdiction, 366-7 appeals, 364-5
hearing of, 379-82
Privy Council, to, 11-2, 30, 364 building in Canberra, Sir Garfield Barwick, 399 comparative jurisprudence, importance to, 92
composition, 366
Australian Constitution, and judicial power, 156-8 criticism of decisions of, of, 398, 403-4 divisions, hearing special leave applications in, 366
funding of, 334
INDEX

judgments, single majority and minority, 141 oral argument, and time constraints, 365 parliament, relationship with, 117 past decisions, attitude to, 35-7 prerogative writ jurisdiction, remitter to Commonwealth Industrial Tribunals, 367 stare decisis, and, 33
United States Supreme Court, differences with, 112, 392, 393, 397 work capacity, and composition, 366 House of Lords
stare decisis, and, 33-5
Human rights see also Bill of Rights and Rights
international instruments concerning, 281 law, international, in Australia, 273-5 Immigrants
illegal, right of judges to speak out about, 7 Immunities
intergovernmental, doctrine of, 129, 149, 143
Impartiality
judicial, as cornerstone of rule of law, 96
protecting, 96-103
Implications
Constitution see implied limitations on Commonwealth legislative power under Constitution, Federalism and States; Freedom of expression contracts, of terms into, 305 Independence
judicial administrative tribunals and, 332 appropriation, one line, 334 cornerstone of rule of law, as, 96 court administration and funding, problems for, 332-5
protecting, 96-103
separation of powers and, 331-44
Indigenous peoples Australian Constitution, initial failure to make provision for, 148
Deakin, attitude to Aboriginal peoples, 240 reconciliation, 244
Information technology, 278 Injunction
remedy, availability of, 168
International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)
values, and Australia's accession to, 90 International law and see Transformation and incorporation theories Australian municipal law, influence on, 256-75
history of, 264-7
international tribunals, 289-90 legislative power, exercise through, 258 private, 73-4, 266
research into, 354-6
Interpretation
statutes, of see Statutory interpretation Interstate trade and commerce corporations power, overcomes restrictions on power with respect to, 128
federal-State balance of powers, and, 153
federal legislative power over, 126-8, 142-3, 153
freedom of, 72, 127, 143, 153, 229, 353
Interveners, 92-3, 387, 391 Investment
competition between nation states for,
278
Jordan, Sir Frederick
outstanding judges, influence of, 43
Judges, 371-3
appellate judges, 52-3
appointment, 49-50, 372, 411-12 Australian judicature, state of, 364-75 change, impact of, 46-9 community standards, and, 101-2 complaints against, investigation of, 371-2, 375
Australian Constitution, and judicial power, 156-8
criticism of, 47-9
executive government, dialogue between judiciary and, 108
extra-curricular comment by, 6 Guide to Judicial Conduct, Australian Institute of Judicial Administration, 6-7 judicial education, 57 independence, judicial, and separation of powers and, 331-44
interviews
novelty, 398
reticence, need for, 4, 7-8, 337-9 Judges (cont)
issues, fundamental, facing, 398-413 lawmaker, as, 54-6, 59-79 authority of judges to make law, 65
belief, popular, that legislators make law, 59-61 change, leaving to legislature and law reform agencies, 76-7 declaratory theory, of judicial decision-making, 61
demise of, 62-4
eamples of judicial law-making, 70-6 legacy of judge-made law, 64-5 legislative and judicial lawmaking, boundary between, 56-7 precedent, judicial law-making and, 66-8 realism, rise of legal, 62-4 restraints on judicial law-making, 68-70 legislative drafting, impact on role of, 54 moral values, enduring, and, 102-3 neutrality, engagement in activities compromising, 6 outstanding, influence of, 42-4
American judges, 43
Australian judges, 43
English judges, 43-4
participation in public life, after elevation to bench, 5 privacy, recognition of general common law right to, 77-9 recruitment, 372-3
resignation, 372-3
reticence, judicial, 337-9 retired, academic and literary pursuits, 8 retirement, 49-50, 372-3 role of
at turn of century, 46-58 public understanding, 399-400 salaries, judicial, 336-7 scrutiny of, 47-9
trial judge, 50-2
values of, 82-3
voice of community, as, 99-100 world outside court-room, and, 100-1 Judicature Act
effect, 311-14
Judicial Conference of Australia
main role, 6-7
Judicial review of administrative action appeals and, distinction, 175

436 cabinet decisions, and, 341 clarification of, 170-2 constitutional foundations of, 180-2 constitutional interpretation and, 115-16 errors of law, distinction between jurisdictional and non-jurisdictional, 14-15, 190-2, 206
fact, in relation to questions of, 193-5 funcus officio, 192
generally, 180-206
Hickman principle, 187-8, 206
judicial power, separation of, as source of limitation of, 173, 185-6
legitimacy of, 115
legitimate expectations and, 197-9, 206, 232-4, 259-63, 275, 355-6 merits, on, 172-6
dividing line, between merits and judicial review, 178
overseas developments, comparative, 199-206
Canada, 199-204
New Zealand, 199
United States, 204-6
prerogative or constitutional writs, 180-2 prerogative clauses, exclusion by, 177, 186-7, 206
proportionality and, 195-7
public opinion and, 108-9 scope of, 188-99
simplification of, 170-2 statutory ultra vires/common law controtroversy, 182-3
High Court’s approach to, 184-5 ultra vires doctrine objections, main, to, 183-4

Jury
trial by, comparison between Australian and United States constitutional provisions, 118-19, 142
voice of community, as, 99

Justice
administration of, and developing role of the judge, 57
precedent, and doctrine of, 27-9

Justiciability
advisory opinions and High Court, inabili ty to give, 156
political questions, 24-5, 116, 142 separation of powers, 24-5, 116

Kerr, Mr Justice JR (Sir John)
Kerr Committee, membership of, 169
Sir Anthony, appreciation of 392, 394
Kerr Committee
establishment of, 169-77

Latham, Sir John, 362 incorporation theory, favoured view of, 264

Law
autonomous set of rules, as, 94 comparative, study of, 356 democracy and, 249-55
distinct Australian, development of, 11-3 future directions in Australian, 11-26 international law makers, judges as, 54-6, 59-79
authority of judges to make law, 65
belief, popular, that legislators make law, 59-61 change, leaving to legislature, 76-7 declaratory theory, of judicial decision-making, 61
demise of, 62-4
examples of judicial law-making, 70-6 legacy of judge-made law, 64-5
legislative and judicial lawmaking, boundary between, 59-79
precedent, judicial law-making and, 66-8
realism, rise of legal, 62-4
restraints on judicial law-making, 68-70 merchant, and international trade law, 267-9 politics, and, 24-5
questions of fact, distinction from questions of, 193-5 reform, research with view to, 357-9 settled principle of law, departure from, 38-41 study of law, research into, as phenomenon, 356 transnational, influence on Australian municipal law, 256-75

Law-making
Australian judge-made law, impact of English precedents on, 11-13 judicial and legislative, boundary between, 5, 59-79

Law reform
law, alterations best left to agencies and legislatures, 76-7 research with view to, 357-9
Sir Anthony, interest in, 393

Leave to appeal
refusal of special, precedential value of, 30-2
special leave procedure, 368-70, 387-91

Legal aid, 332-3

Legal reasoning, 21-3
consequentialist reasoning of judges, 103

Legal research
comparative law, significance for, 356, 396 doctrinal, 349-51
education, for legal, 351 function, 345-60
importance, 348-60
inter-disciplinary, 351-4 international law, research into, 354-6 law reform, research with view to, 357-9 legal education, differences between United States and Australian, 347-8 nature of, 349
utility, United States debate about, 346-7

Legalism
constitutional interpretation, and doctrine of, 114-15 doctrine of, 17-9, 220
practice, in, 19-20
relaxation of strict, 20-1 shift away from, 17-26
Sir Owen Dixon's concept of, 114-15 judicial method, and, 61-2 virtues, 18-19

Legislature
ability to change law as interpreted by courts, 404 changes, appropriate to be made by, 76-9 courts not legislatures, 56-7
determination by, of rights of audience in courts, 335-6

Leon Ladner Lecture, delivered by Sir Anthony in 1989 at the University of British Columbia, 10, 331-44

Locus standi, 25

Mabo Case, 46, 61, 68-9, 72, 83, 86, 88-9, 98, 102, 232, 259, 273, 318, 356, 401-4, 411

Mansfield, Lord
outstanding judges, influence of, 44
Mason, Sir Anthony alternative to legalism, attempt to find, 3 appointments as Justice and Chief Justice of High Court, 400
Bill of Rights see Bill of Rights career
appraisal, 397
biographical details, 414-15 interview on televison, major, 398-413 lecture, inaugural, delivered by Sir Anthony in 1995 to the Melbourne University Law Students' Society, 256-75
Oxford Companion to High Court
entry regarding, 397
toast to contributors, 361-3 Republic see Republic speech-making, extra-judicial appraisal and extent of, 1-5 criteria for selection, 8-9
propriety of, 5-8
swearing in, (High Court) as Chief Justice, 395-7
Justice, 392-4
writing, extra-judicial appraisal of, 1-5
criteria for selection, 8-9
propriety of, 5-8
McTernan, Sir Edward, 362
Menzies, Sir Douglas, 363
Menzies, Sir Robert, Lecture delivered by Sir Anthony at the University of Virginia in 1985, 110-43 Migration cases
public opinion and judicial review of administrative decisions, 108-9 Mis-statement
negligent, conflicting views on, Australian and English courts, 13 Mistakes
administrative tribunal, power to correct, 192 Monarchy
entrenchment of, by Australian Constitution, 147-8
Moral values see Community and values Murder
objective test of intent, conflicting views
on, Australian and English courts, 13 Negligence
conflicting views on, Australian and English courts
mis-statement, 14
occupiers' liability, 13
economic loss, recovery for, 14, 38, 73, 342, 384
equity, effect on, 310
liability of government and public authorities in, 342-3
negligent birth, 63-4, 75 neighbour principle, 55, 102
occupiers liability, 14, 70-1 straying stock, liability of owner of adjacent land, 38
New Zealand
administrative law, developments in, 199
O'Connor, Justice
outstanding judges, influence of, 43
Occupiers' liability
conflicting views on, Australian and English courts, 13
Ombudsman
Counsel for Grievances, or, 176-7 establishment of office of, 176-7
Oxford Companion to High Court
toast to contributors, 361-3
Parliament
constitutional interpretation deerence to legislative judgment, 116-17
parliamentary supremacy, and doctrine of, 113-14, 121
executive controlling, 250 High Court, relationship with, 117
members of Parliament, qualifications of, 151, 161, 162
privilege, contempt of, 405 sovereignty, parliamentary Bill of Rights and theory of, 219 decaying influence of, in United Kingdom and generally, 221-2 people, sovereignty of the, 224-5 supremacy, parliamentary, 113-14, 121
Bill of Rights, and, 26, 122, 146-7, 219 movement away from exclusive emphasis on, in evolving concept of democracy, 26
treaties, role of, 290-3 Policy
judges, propriety of comments concerning, matters of, 6-7

Politics
internationalisation of, 278
law and, 24-5
party system, impact on representative government, 250 political process, erosion in public confidence, 161-2 power, pursuit of political, 250

Precedent
attitude of mind, precedent as, 40-1 consistency, and doctrine of, 27-9 constraining effect of, 37-8 continuity, and doctrine of, 27-9 discipline of, 27-45
ambit, 29-37
content, 29-37
English and American precedents, 41-2
American case law, 41-2
English case law, 41-2
flexibility, and doctrine of, 27-9 justice, and doctrine of, 27-9 law-making, judicial, and, 66-8 narrow sense, in, 29-30
outstanding judges, influence of, 42-4 predictability, and doctrine of, 27-9 progress and, balancing, 39-40 ratio decidendi, 37-8
rationality, and doctrine of, 27-9 refusal of special leave to appeal, precedent value of, 30-2 settled principle of law, departure from, 38-41
stare decisis, and doctrine of see Stare decisis

Prerogative writs, 182
High Court, remitter of jurisdiction to Commonwealth Industrial Tribunals, 367 technicalities of, 167

Privacy
judicial decision, recognition of general common law right by, 77-9

Privy Council appeals to, from High Court, 11-12, 30, 395-6, 412 decisions, as precedents, 12

Prohibitions
implied from federalism, in Australian and United States constitutions, 128-33, 143, 149-51

Public authorities
negligence, liability in, 342-3

Public opinion
courts and, 94-109
judicial attitudes to, 94-6 how judges ascertain, 108 impact on independence of judges, 96-9 sentencing and, 104-7
Australian view, 106-7
English view, 105-6

Publicity
court proceedings, of, 253

Publishing
Australian legal, 348-9

Punishment
deterrent effect, 105

Ratio decidendi, 37-8

Rationalism
rise of economic, impact on national sovereignty, 277

Religion
freedom of, comparison between Australian and United States constitutional provisions, 119-20 non-establishment of, comparison between Australian and United States constitutional provisions, 119-20

Republic
Convention model for, 145, 162, 163-6
Deakin’s view on, 246
Sir Anthony Mason, attitude to establishment of Australian, 3, 163, 166, 412

Research see Legal research

Reserve powers
codification of, 164

Resignation
judges, of, 372-3

Restitution, 327-9

Retirement
judicial, 49-50, 372-3

Rights see also Bill of Rights and Constitution acquisition of property, on just terms Commonwealth law, 146
State law, absence of right, 234
Australian Constitution, no charter of citizens’ rights or Bill of Rights, 122-3, 146-7 Rights (cont)
civil, in era of economic reform and terrorism, 252-4 common law, protection of, 188-9, 226-9 equal comparison between Australian and United States constitutional provisions, 121 discrimination against interstate residents, 121, 142, 146 fundamental Australian Constitution and, 118-21, 142, 146, 229-31, 366 courts, constitutions and, 219-35 protection of, 25-6, 226-9 statutory intention to override, expression of, 88, 188, 226-7 hearing, right to fair and public, 253 human rights law, international, in Australia, 273-5 jury, right to, 118-19, 142, 146 implied from Australian Constitution, 231, 234 individual standing to enforce international human rights, 90, 93, 274, 287-8 international convention, recognition by courts where declared by, 232-4 non-discrimination as, 89 parliamentary privilege, effect on rights, 405 religion, free exercise of, and freedom from establishment, 119-20, 146 representative government, rights derived from, 74, 93, 118, 142, 223-4, 230, 406-9 values see Values
violation of rights, right to remedy for, 253

Salaries, judicial, 336-7

Science, 244-5
Deakin, approval of expenditure on, 244-5
international law, influence on expansion of, 266

Security, threats to, and individual rights, 252

Senate
Australia's national security interests, definition, 253 government control of, 250 supply, power to refuse, 164

Sentencing
defendants, of criminal, right of judges to speak out about, 7 guideline judgments, 106
public opinion and, 104-7
Australian view, 106-7
English view, 105-6

Separation of powers
administrative law principles, influence of doctrine on, 189-90 advisory opinions, inability of High Court to give, 156 conventions, and accessions to international, 258-63 justiciability and political questions, 24-5, 116, 142 inconvenience, 21
independence, judicial, and, 331-44 limitations on judicial review of administrative action, 173, 185

Shimizu Trust Lecture, delivered by Sir Anthony in 1995 at the London School of Economics and Political Science, 219-18

Sovereignty autonomy, loss of, 282-6 decline of, 282-93
problems for democratic government, and, 276-95 document of, 282-3

Speech-making
extra-judicial, of Sir Anthony Mason
appraisal of, 1-5
criteria for selection, 8-9
propriety of, 5-8

Stare decisis
effect of doctrine, 12, 44
High Court, and, 33
House of Lords, and, 33-5 legal reasoning, and application of, 22-3 legalism, coupled with doctrine of, 114
precedent, and doctrine of, 32-3 law-making, judicial, 66-8, 70-6

States see also Federalism; Treaties balance of powers, federal-State, 148-55, 257-8, 409-10 Commonwealth power
implied limitations on, 128-33, 143, 149
weaker limitation, emergence of, 150
INDEX

Engineers Case, rejection of implied limitations by, 129-30, 143, 149-50, 158, 409
Commonwealth, financial dependence on, 124-5, 151-3 decline in authority of, 140 external affairs power, and federal-State balance of powers, 150-1, 257-8 prohibitions, implied, as safeguard for interests of, 129-33 Statutory interpretation, 23-4
bill of rights, and, 122
community standards and, 103
constitutional interpretation, principles of, 133-40, 158-60 analytical approach, former, 139-40
dynamic rule of constitutional interpretation, 135-6
extrinsic materials, 137-8
formal rules of statutory construction, 136-7
meaning of terms, in 1900, 138-9 democratic process, and, 188-9 treaty provisions, recourse to, 259 Stay of proceedings
criminal prosecution, power of courts to stay, 339-40 Supply
Senate, power to refuse, 164
Tariff protection
Deakin, attitude to, 240-1
Taxation cases
conflicting views on, Australian and English courts, 16 Terrorism
civil rights in era of, 252-4 Guantanamo Bay, treatment of suspects held in, 254 protection of individual rights, in struggle against, 254 suspected terrorists, right of judges to speak out about, 7 Torts see Negligence
Trade
international trade law, influence on Australian municipal law, 267-9 Transformation and incorporation theories conventions, and unincorporated, 263-4 views of Sir Owen Dixon and Sir John Latham, 264 Treaties
common law, development through unincorporated, 259 executive power to enter into, 153, 257, 258 with commercial impact, 153
separation of powers, 258
Parliament and States, role of in negotiation of, 291-3 federal legislative power, exercise through treaty obligations, 151-2, 258 and see Federalism international human rights, relationship with municipal law, 273-5, 281-2 international treaty-making, and democratic deficit, 290-3 legitimate expectations in administrative law, generated by, 206, 232-4, 259-63, 275, 355-6 unincorporated, relationship with municipal law see Transformation and incorporation theories Trial
jury, by, including comparison between Australian and United States constitutional provisions, 118-19, 142, 146 Tribunals
courts and, 50
international, 289-90
Trusts see also Equity constructive trusts, remedial, 320-4 Unconscionable conduct see Equity United Kingdom
conflicting views, Australian and English courts, 13-16, 71-2 impact of international law on Australian municipal law and, 264-7 outstanding judges, influence of, 43-4 parliamentary supremacy, declining influence of, in United Kingdom, 221-2 precedents, English and American, 41-2
American case law, 41-2
English case law, 41-2
United Nations
deficiency, international institutional, 287-9 formation of, 280-1
United States
administrative law, developments in, 204-6
legal education in Australia and, 347-8 United States (cont)
outstanding judges, influence of, 44
precedents, English and American, 41-2
   American case law, 41-2
   English case law, 41-2
Supreme Court, differences with High Court, 112, 392, 393, 397
Universities, independence of, 251
Values, 81-2
   bill of, 91
   Bill of Rights, and, 89-90 community standards, as, 83-4 courts, resources to identify and assess, 91-2 general legal principles, and formation of, 84-6 identification of, 88-9
   judges, of, 82-3
   judicial process, importance in, 86-8 law, role in, 80-93
   moral values, enduring, and judges, 102-3 recital of, 91
   rights see Rights
War
   international conventions on, Australia and, 265

Wednesbury unreasonableness, 178
   proportionality and, 195
Westminster model and see also Democracy and Politics framers of Australian Constitution, adoption by, 147 ministerial responsibility, decline of, 249 republic, effect of adoption on, 163-6

'White Australia'
   Deakin, position in relation to, 239-40

Whitmore, Professor Harry
   Kerr Committee, membership of, 169

World
   institutional order, existing, 280-2
   international
      institutional deficiency, 287-9 tribunals, 289-90

Writing
   extra-judicial, of Sir Anthony Mason
      appraisal of, 1-5
      criteria for selection, 8-9
      propriety of, 5-8