INDEX

Note to index: An “n” following a page number denotes a footnote on that page.

A
abortion, 52, 77, 193–194, 195 adaptation, to prison, 39–40 adaptation to intensity effect, 37, 44 age of offender: as future criminality predictor, 118–119; relation to criminality, 127–128 aggregated effects, of deterrence, 23 aggregated-effect studies, 50–58; conclusions of, 51; doctrinal manipulation effect, 54–58; mixed/conflicting results, 52–54; no effects, 51–52 alcohol and drug use: among criminals, 28, 28n30, 68, 103–104; breathalyzer tests, 69–70; driving while intoxicated, 52–53; high penalties for drug offenses, 90n159, 202, 203; rehabilitation programs for drug users, 103–105 alcohol myopia, 47
alternatives, to prison sentences, 65–66
Andenaes, Johannes, 195–196
Anderson, David, 36
animal studies: on punishment, 32–35; on punishment amount, 36–37; on punishment delay, 45; response bursts in, 34 arousal effect, 29–30, 68 arrest rates, 54–55
arson, attempted, 116

B
Bentham, Jeremy, 32
breathalyzer tests, 69–70
Beyer, Stephen, 167–168
Brickman, P., 39

C
Campbell, D., 39
cannibalism. see Regina v. Dudley and Stephens cardinal ranking, of offenses, 157 check fraud, 51, 52, 122 chemical/medical castration, 106 civil commitment system, 113, 129, 130–132, 259 Coffee, John, 182, 190
cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT), 102–103, 106 community intuitions of justice, 170–171, 173; of morally acceptable actions as criminalized, 181–182; reliable method for determining, 203; on rescuing person in distress, 180–181. see also community perceptions of desert; moral credibility community perceptions of desert, 201–210; based on desert only, 205–206; based on desert vs. deterrence, 205; based on desert vs. incapacitation, 204–205; misconceptions as draconian, 202–204; principles of justice vs. current law, 208–210; use in criminal codes/sentencing guidelines, 206–208. see also empirical desert, crime-control value of community service, 38, 51, 66, 142, 151, 219, 220, 253–254 comparative deterrent effect problem, 91–92 comparative ranking, of offenses, 158n310 conviction/punishment rates, 34–35 correctional industries, 101 court system, transition from juvenile to adult, 56–57 crime-control reforms, 202, 203–204; age of prosecution as adult, 111, 111n209, 121–122; drug offense penalties, 90n159, 202, 203; regulatory offense criminalization, 190, 192, 202, 203, 259; three-strikes, 80–81, 86, 110, 110n208–111n208, 122–124, 127, 132–133 crime rate, effects of decrease/increase in, 90 criminal law: human rights theory of, 236; public perception of, 24–27, 92–93, 93n165; role in consensus on moral norms, 96, 186. see also deterrence effect, of criminal law; moral credibility, of criminal law Cruel and unusual punishment, 65, 81, 163
Cumulative dissipation, 49–50

D
death penalty: dangerousness as ground for, 111n210; deterrence effect and, 53–54; mitigations and, 111n210; primary justification for, 136
Deindividuation, 30
Deontological desert, 5, 138–139; as based on anger/hatred, 148–149; criterion for, 11; criticism as harsh, 145–146; criticism as immoral, 164–165; criticism as impractical to implement, 167; criticism as vague, 154–155, 158; flexibility in punishment method, 150–151; punishment continuum endpoint and, 156; strengths/weaknesses of, 229–230; as subject to disagreement, 159–160; utility of, 164; vs. empirical desert, 142–144, 173; vs. vengeful desert, 140–142, 172–173. see also desert distributive principle; empirical desert; vengeful desert desensitization, to prison, 40 desert distributive principle: criticisms of, 144–171; as based on anger/hatred, 147–149; disutility, 163–164; as harsh, 145–147; as immoral, 164–166; as impractical to implement, 166–168; preference for prison/worse, 149–152; as subject to profound disagreement, 159–163; vagueness, 152–159; deterrence distribution effect on, 91–92; flexibility in punishment method, 150–151, 219. see also deontological desert; empirical desert; vengeful desert deterrence-based system, 5 deterrence distributive principle: comparative deterrent effect problem, 91–92; crime-control effectiveness problem, 95–97; criterion for general/special, 8–9; desert-deviation problem, 92–95; difficulties as a distributive principle, 87–97; efficiency of general, 227; ethical issues in general, 223; information/complexity problems, 87–91; rationale for decriminalization, 77; strengths/weaknesses of general, 223–225; strengths/weaknesses of special, 225; vs. rehabilitation, 99. see also deterrence distributive principle, rationales for; deterrence effect, of criminal law deterrence distributive principle, rationales for, 76–83; culpability requirements, 77; defenses, 79–80; deviations from justice and, 85–87; mitigations, 78–79; pervasiveness of orientation, 83–85; prohibitions, 76–77; sentencing decisions, 82–83; in setting offense grades, 80–82 deterrence effect, of criminal law:
aggregated-effect studies, 50–58; aggregated effects and, 23; behavioral science view on, 21–23; cumulative dissipation problem and, 49–50; knowledge of legal rules, insuring, 59–61; need to satisfy all prerequisites, 48–49; perceived net cost of violation, 61–68; perceived punishment amount, 64–68; perceived punishment probability, 62–63; perceived violation/punishment delay, 64, 70–71; reforms and, 23; self-interest conduct decision, 68–70; skepticism regarding, 21, 22, 50, 69, 73, 86, 88. see also deterrence effect of criminal law, prerequisites to deterrence speak, 83–85 differential association, 30 diplomatic immunity, 170n339–171n339, 257 distribution principles, alternative: unarticulated combinations of, 17–19. see also distribution principles, conflict among alternative; distribution principles, criterion for alternative; hybrid distributive principles; individual principle distribution principles, conflict among alternative, 12–17; deontological and empirical desert, 16–17; general and special deterrence, 12–14; incapacitation and rehabilitation, 14–16 distribution principles, criterion for alternative, 7–12; deontological desert, 11; empirical desert, 11–12; general and special deterrence, 8–9; incapacitation of the dangerous, 9–10; rehabilitation, 10 domestic violence, 14, 178n346 double jeopardy, 257 driving while intoxicated, 52–53 drug offenses. see alcohol and drug use duration neglect effect, 41–44 duress defense, 79, 85n156

Durham, Alexis M., 159
E
education program, prison, 100–101 empirical desert, 5, 139–140; avoidance of disagreement, 161–162; compliance in borderline cases and, 187–189; crime-control value of, 175–189; criterion for, 11–12; criticism as based on anger/hatred, 148–149; criticism as harsh, 146; criticism as immoral, 164, 165, 166; criticism as impractical to implement, 167–168; criticism as vague, 154–155, 158–159; disutility of injustice and, 202–204; flexibility in punishment method, 150–151; influence on societal norms, 186–187; punishment continuum endpoint and, 156; reasons not to adopt, 170–171; resistance/subversion avoidance and, 178–184; strengths/weaknesses of, 228–229, 242–243; stigmatization as crime-control and, 176–178; utility of, 164; vs. deontological desert, 211; vs. restorative justice, 213–214; vs. vengeful desert, 140–142, 172–173. see also deontological desert; desert distributive principle; hybrid distributive principle; individual principle; vengeful desert tentrapment defense, 79, 169, 257, 259 ethical issues: in general deterrence, 223; in rehabilitation, 10, 226; in research, 32; sexual offenders and, 106 exclusionary rule, 209, 257 excuse defense, 9, 16, 77, 79–80, 84–85, 121–122, 258

F
family situation, as future criminality predictor, 118–119 Federal Guidelines, 122n242–123n242 felony-murder rule, 57–58, 80, 82–83, 86, 94, 224 fines, 51, 66, 219, 253–254
Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 77
French, Peter, 184

G
gambling, online, 183–184
gangs, 29–30, 111, 111n210 Gottfredson, Michael R., 29, 30 groups, as offenders, 29–31

H
habitual offenders. see “three strikes” laws health violation. see United States v. Park hedonic adaptation, 39, 40
Hirschi, Travis, 29, 30
Holmes, Oliver W., 79
homicide. see murder Hood, Roger, 53–54
house arrest, 66, 70, 115, 129, 220, 253–254 human rights theory of criminal law, 236 Hu, Yuen, 63
hybrid distributive principle, articulated, 247–260; criminal justice reforms and, 258; deviations from empirical desert, 254–257; deviations from empirical desert, avoiding, 257–259; to promote justice, 255–256; to sacrifice justice for other interests, 256–257; use of civil vs. criminal process, 258. see also hybrid distributive principle, proposed articulated hybrid distributive principle, proposed articulated, 248–254; contingent priority approach, 254, 255; deviations to more effectively control crime, 250–252; inconspicuous deviations, 249–250; primary principle of empirical desert, 249; punishment method, 253–254; simple priority approach, 253–254; summary of, 248–249; weakness of, 254 hybrid distributive principles, 231–246; A.I.L. and limiting retributivism, 240–246; combining principles, 236–238; countervailing criminogenic effect, 243–244; determining vs. limiting principles, 234–236; effectiveness requirement, 242–243; establishing priorities for, 233–234; liability/amount vs. punishment method, 238–240; nonexistent range of deserved punishments, 244–245; relying on principle with greatest punishment, 232–233. see also hybrid distributive principle, articulated ideal punishment equivalency table, 151, 151n296 immaturity defense, 79, 121 incapacitation distributive principle, 109–133; criterion for, 9–10; criticisms of, 109–110; desert/dangerousness conflict, 117–119; desert/dangerousness conflict, denying, 119–120; deterrence distribution effect on, 91; discounting significance of resulting harm, 116–117; doing justice vs. preventive detention, 130–133; failure to receive punishment deserved, 124–125; fixed (“determinate”) sentencing problem, 128–130; minimum restraint principle, 115; obscuring shift to preventive detention, 113–116; pretrial preventive detention, 114; preventive detention as criminal justice problem, 110–120; prior criminal record problem, 126–128; restraint level problem, 129; strengths/weaknesses of, 227–228, 242–243; as undermining justice, 120–126 inchoate liability, 5, 15, 76–77, 82n148, 116, 116n222, 117, 124 informational influence, of law, 189 insanity defense, 9, 16, 79–80, 84–85; average acquittal rate, 27n26; public perception of, 27 institutional reforms, 209 instrumentalist distributive principles. see deterrence distributive principle; incapacitation distributive principle; rehabilitation

I

J joyriding, 77
judicial discretion, 66–67, 93–95, 124–125, 254–255 jury: discretionary role of, 93, 94–95; sentencing by, 46, 46n74 jury nullification, 74–75, 93 justification defense, 79 juvenile: dangerousness of, 121–122, 121n236; tried as adult, 111, 111n209, 121–122

K
Kahan, Dan M., 84, 115
Katyal, Neil K., 90
Kendall’s W coefficient of concordance, 161
Kleiman, Mark, 69

L
Lande, Stephen, 34
“laundry list” approach to specifying distributive principles, 5–6 Levitt, Steven D., 54–56 liability rules, 76–77
limitations of distributive principle, 260 low capture rate offense, 8

M
“making an example,” as reason for punishment, 67 malum in se offenses, 160, 197 malum prohibitum offenses, 190, 197, 198 mandatory minimum sentences, 66 manslaughter mitigation, 79 McCarty, Sean. see People v. McCarty media coverage, effect on punishment, 8–9, 13 medical neglect. see State v. Williams Megan’s Law, 111–112
minimum restraint principle, 115 mitigation: death penalty and, 111n210; deontological desert and, 138; deterrence and, 79; juvenile tried as adult and, 121; manslaughter and, 79; provocation and, 14, 18, 79, 255; rapists and, 209; retributionism and, 146n285; special deterrence and, 13, 14 modal ranking, of offenses, 160–161 Model Penal Code: desert distributive principle and, 75, 135, 166; on incapacitation distributive principle, 75; on inchoate liability, 116, 116n222, 117, 124, 209; on inherently unlikely criminal attempts, 16, 16n10; on provisions governing definitions of offenses, 3; on provisions governing sentencing/treatment of offenders, 4; on rape, 209; on rehabilitation, 107, 149–150; on renunciation defense to attempt, 76; on resulting harm, 116–117, 116n222; on retribution, 149–150; revision of, 240–246; revision of, flaws in, 243–244; on sentencing, 119–120, 153 moral credibility: of criminal justice system, 125–126, 171, 179–180. see also moral credibility, of criminal law moral credibility, of criminal law, 96–97, 125–126, 171, 184; determinants of, 189–201; blurring criminal-civil distinction, 190–193; deviations from desert, 198–200, 210; generalization of disrespect, 154–196; moral divisions within community, 193–194; persuasion vs. contempt, 196–198; underestimating power of credibility, 200–201 Morris, Norval, 120, 153, 155
murder: felony-murder rule, 57–58, 80, 82–83, 86, 94, 224; necessity defense, 78; negligent homicide, 90n159; ranking, 157 Murray, Charles, 183, 188

N necessity defense, 14, 78, 182 negligence, 77n133, 78–79, 79n138, 82n148, 87, 157, 255 Newman, Graeme. 161n320
non-desert crime control. see deterrence distribution principle; incapacitation distribution principle; rehabilitation O obedience to law, reasons for, 176, 180, 211 offense grades, 66, 80, 81–82, 146. see also ranking offenses official immunity, 257 online gambling, 183–184 ordinal ranking, of offenses, 120, 155, 157, 158n310, 161, 162–163, 239, 250 over-criminalization, 182–184

P
pedophilia, 106, 130n257
People v. McCarty, 82–83, 86, 94 personality characteristics, of criminal, 29 pharmacological programs, 104–105 plea bargaining, 94, 209, 256 police training, 209
Posner, Eric, 177
preventive detention. see incapacitation distributive principle prior criminal record, 123, 126–128.
see also “three strikes” laws prison education programs, 100–101 prison violence, protecting against, 209 prison vocational program, 101, 102 privacy issues, 23, 84, 130, 200, 248, 252 probation, 18, 37–38, 151, 239, 253–254 procedural fairness, 23, 63, 170 procedural reform, 209 Prohibition, 181–182, 183, 195 proportionality, 90n159, 149n292, 154, 158n310, 159, 167, 172 prosecutor discretion, 93, 94–95 provocation, 14, 18, 79, 255 psychological services, for criminals, 102–103 punishment continuum endpoint, 155–157, 162, 172 punishment effect: adaptation calculation, 39–41; duration neglect, 41–43; naive calculation, 38, 41

Q
Queen v. Clotworthy, 215–217

R
Rummel v. Estelle, 81–82, 86, 122, 132–133

S
sentences: first-time offender, 37–38; fixed ("determinate") sentencing, 128–130; international differences in, 156n307; suspended, 37; "truth in sentencing," 68, 128n255. see also nonincarcerative sanctions Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, 4, 67, 107n203, 128n255 sexual offender: pedophiles, 106, 130n257; postsentence civil commitment and, 131–132, 132n261; rehabilitation program for, 106; statutes, 111–112, 112n212 social capital, 177
social norms, 96, 176–178, 177n344
State v. Williams, 79, 86, 87 statutes of limitations, 256, 258 stigmatization of criminality, 44–45, 96, 97, 176–178; weakening, 192–193 strict liability, 18, 77–78, 79, 190, 191, 192, 193, 256, 258 substitution effects, 74, 90 suicide, decriminalization of, 77

T
therapeutic community approach, for drug users, 105
"three strikes" laws, 80–81, 86, 110, 110n208–111n208, 122–124, 127, 132–133 tort liability, 191 torture, 43, 64–65, 155 treatment programs, 253–254
"truth in sentencing," 68, 128n255
Tyler, Tom, 63, 180, 188–189

U
unemployment, as future criminality predictor, 118
United States Sentencing Commission, 4
United States Sentencing Guidelines, 6
United States v. Park, 77–78, 86–87 units of punishment, 240 U.S. Sentencing Guidelines, 107n203 utilitarian punishment, 1 utility, of desert, see community perceptions of desert; empirical desert, crime-control value of; moral credibility, of criminal law

V
vengeful desert, 136–138, 172; as based on anger/hatred, 148–149; criticism as harsh, 145, 147; criticism as impractical to implement, 166–167; criticism as vague, 154; criticism of preference for prison/worse, 150; as subject to disagreement, 159; vs. deontological/empirical desert, 140–142, 172–173. see also deontological desert; desert distributive principle; empirical desert vicarious liability, 76, 190, 191, 192, 193 violence, in prison, 209 vocational program, prison, 101, 102 voluntary act requirement, 16, 79 von: Hirsch, Andrew, 120, 123

W weekend jail, 66, 142, 253–254 witness immunity, 256 work-release programs, 101

Z
Zinsser, Frank, 52