Contents

Foreword by The Hon J A Jerrard QC v
Acknowledgments xi
Table of Cases xiii
Table of Statutes xx

1 Introduction 1
   Definitions 5

2 Theoretical Underpinnings of Exclusionary Powers and their Application to Derivative Evidence 9
   Introduction 9
   The purpose of the criminal trial: the search for truth 9
   Relevance, reliability and the criminal trial 10
   Compromise of the search for truth 13
   Constitutionalism and democracy 14
   The judicial integrity principle 20
   The deterrence principle 25
   The protective principle 31
   Factors of most weight in respect of the underlying principles 34
   Derivative evidence and the underpinning theories: relevance for the practitioner 37

3 The United Kingdom Approach: Reliability and Derivative Evidence 40
   England: From common law to PACE 40
   PACE – general 51
   Confessions: Section 76(2) of PACE 53
   The general discretion for exclusion:
   Section 78 of PACE 59
   Observations from the English experience 67
CONTENTS

4 The US Approach: From Rights and Judicial Integrity to Deterrence

- Introduction 72
- The Bill of Rights and its importance to the exclusion of primary and derivative evidence 73
- The Fourth Amendment – protection against unreasonable search and seizure 74
- Sixth Amendment – right to counsel 80
- The Fifth Amendment – privilege against self-incrimination 81
- Standing 92
- Exceptions to the exclusionary rules 94
- Observations: lessons from the US experience 107

5 The Australian Approach

- Exclusionary powers specific to confessional evidence 113
- Confessions under the common law 114
- Confessions – Uniform Evidence Legislation (UEL) 126
- The public policy discretion to exclude at common law and under statute 135
- Factors relevant to public policy discretions 149
- Derivative evidence with respect to confessions excluded under the confession-specific exclusionary powers 166
- Derivative evidence in Australia – case examples 167
- Observations on the Australian derivative cases 184
- A suggested model for approaching derivative evidence in Australia 184

Index 193