Contents

Foreword Sir Gerard Brennan v
Preface xv
Contributors xvii

George Winterton: A Friend to Students and Foreign Law xxii
Rosalind Dixon

My Mate in Empire: George Winterton and the Republic Debate xxix
Julian Leeser

George Winterton – A Singular, Gifted Scholar xxxviii
Laurence Maher

A Voice not Stilled – An Obituary in Recollection of George Winterton xlix
Robert French

Table of Cases liii
Table of Statutes lxii

1. The Constitutional Amendment Process: Poetry for the Ages 1
   John M Williams

2. Advancing the Federal Principle through the Inter-governmental Immunity Doctrine 23
   Geoffrey Lindell

3. Salus Populi Suprema Lex Esto: Constitutional Fidelity in Troubled Times 53
   HP Lee

4. The Constitution and the Environment 79
   Peter Johnston

5. Commonwealth Power over Industrial Relations: Evolution without a Referendum 105
   George Williams and David Hume

6. Native Title – A Constitutional Shift? 126
   RS French
CONTENTS

7. The Express Rights Provisions: Form and Substance (or Opportunities Taken and Not Taken) 155
   Keven Booker and Arthur Glass

8. The Implied Rights Revolution – Balancing Means and Ends? 173
   Nicholas Aroney

9. Parliament, the Executive, the Governor-General and the Republic: The George Winterton Thesis 189
   Peter Gerangelos

10. The Separation of Judicial Power and Progressive Interpretation 222
    Fiona Wheeler

11. Original Meanings and Contemporary Understandings in Constitutional Interpretation 245
    Jeffrey Goldsworthy

12. Chief Justice Gleeson and the Constitution 269
    Leslie Zines

13. Constitutional Advancement – Some Reflections 283
    Sir Anthony Mason

Index 301